

Pay it Forward Video

Answer the following questions. Write the responses in your Career binder.

1. “What does the world expect of you?” Comment on what your teachers, parents, friends and siblings expect of you.
2. “The realm of possibility exists in each of you.” What does this mean?
3. Are you prepared for the world outside of high school? Comment on the skills you presently have that prepare you for the “real world”? Which others do you have to work on?
4. What does pay it forward mean? How does it work?
5. Name five examples of pay it forward in the video, two in which Trevor was directly involved.
6. Often something good can come out of something not so good – give a couple of examples where a negative event or experience may have led to something good.
7. What can you do to make your school and community a better place?
