

Task # 13

“The Pursuit of Happiness”

1. Describe three qualities that Chris Gardner possessed that made him an excellent candidate for the sole position at the brokerage firm. What did he do that revealed these qualities?
2. Identify two intelligences that Chris possessed. How did these intelligences contribute to his ultimate success?
3. Happiness is spelled incorrectly in the title. Why is this so and what does it say about the message of the movie?
4. Despite Chris Gardner’s living situation, he still managed to present a professional persona. Explain why this is important and the things he did to present this image to his employer and future clients.
5. What can we learn as a result of Chris Gardner’s journey to success? Identify three things we can take away from the movie?
